Phillies Make Eight Hits Off Old Master, but Score Only 4 Runs to 8 by Victors.

The Giants kept up their harsh hitting in Philadelphia yesterday, won the third straight of the series and have taken the last seven games they have played with the Quakers. The New York lead is two and a half games. The Brooklyns regained their poise and climbed all over the Bostons' frames. The Reds were twersted by the Cardinals and the Cubs worsted by the Cardinals and the Cubs proceeded to jump on the Pirates again. The Bostons fell back to seventh place.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2 .- Christy Mathewson did not strike out a batsman, nor did he issue a pass, and he allowed the Phillies thirteen hits. But withal the Giants defeated the Phillies 8 to 4 in today's game, played in sizzling heat and before not more than 5,000 fans. In the seventh inning a heavy shower stopped the game for twenty minutes and when play was resumed the pitchers had to Snafer started it was by Larry Doyle, the home run artist. Doyle also figured in the spectacular play of the game. Magee was on first. Doolan hit a jumper toward fletcher, which the latter only knocked down, and in doing so batted the ball toward second. Doyle was covering the bag and Magee was brushing toward it like a racehorse. The ball did not roll close enough for Larry to hold the base and grabed up the ball just before Magee slid into the bag.

The first scoring came in the third. Shafer singled and Fletcher doubled. Doyle hit to Luderus and Shafer was caught trying to score. Merkle then doubled and scored Fletcher. Murray's hard grounder was too wide for Doolan to scoop and Doyle and Merkle counted. Meyers walked, but Snodgrass hit into a double play and the inning ended.

In the fourth Moore pitched. Matty started the fun with a hit to right, his second of the game. Burns also singled and then Killifer, gathering in Shafer's bunt in front of the plate, threw Matty out at third. Fletcher flied out, but Doyle got his hit a little further, sending it over the fence, and thus Burns and Shafer tapped on the rubber ahead of him. Merkle singled, but was left on when Mur. before Magee slid into the bag.

To-day's Schedule. Philadelphia in New York. Washington in Boston. Chicago in St. Louis. Detroit in Cleveland.

The Athletics made their runs yesterday, and enough and to spare to win, from the use of two systems. The systems were simple but efficacious. They either batted runs in with solid hits or eased themselves home on New York errors, an elemental combination of policies, but none other was required. The score was 8 to 5, and the New Yorks revelled in a lead for a short while. The scoring of the New Yorks had the attributes of a hollow sandwich. They were slices of substance at each extremity, but nothing in between. Runs were made in the first and ninth innings, with a long and barren pause in between. Each side did a great deal of scattered hitting, the Athletics batting safely in every inning and finding Ford not hard to reach when there was a run to be had for the reaching. Ford also experienced two innings of bunched hitting by the pacemakers and didn't handle them with the effectiveness didn't handle them with the effictiveness he often shows against them. Bender wasn't at his best by any means. The New Yorks merely chipped the Chippewa for a seven inning interim, but bunched on him in the first and ninth. With a big, luscious lead in the ninth, the Chief seemed to be played out and was removed from the Indian records of the height moved from the Indian mound after being speared for three singles and walking a

The New Yorks managed to centralize their errors to the welfare of the Athletics. The domestic errors cropped out in a cluster in one inning, whereas, as showing the difference in the way a team which moves in the highest circles and one of the undercrust does things, the Ath-

Each Wants Other to Get the Praise

TWO wonderful catches were made by Moran and Meyer of the Dodgers off two pitched balls in the sixth inning yesterday. Maranville shot a long drive to right centre. It looked as if it would hit the wall, but Moran leaped several feet off the ground and speared it with his gloved hand. The next moment Devlin hammered a low liner to short left, which Meyer, who had succeeded Wheat, caught off his toes while running in at full speed. The crowd applauded both players as they approached the bench, Moran pointing to Meyer as the one most deserving of the noisy praise and Meyer returning the compliment in a similar way. Then both raised their caps.

St. Louis, July 2.—The Browns and Naps broke even in a double header this afternoon. The first game went to St. Louis in eleven innings by a score of 2 to 1, and the second game was annexed by the visitors by a score of 4 to 1. The first game was a pitchers' battle between Hamilton and Mitchell, in which the St. Louisan had the better control. Also he was aided by five double plays. The winning run came to St. Louis when Wallace, batting for Williams with the bases full, drew free transportation, forcing in the winning run. In the second game Falkenberg held the Browns at his mercy after the fourth inning, when their only run was scored. Lajole again appeared in the lineup, playing at second, thus removing any doubt regarding trouble in the camp of the Naps. The scores:

Tyler, Noyes, Hess and Strand Share in Carnage of Brooklyn Bats.

Ragged work in the box by four Boston Ragged work in the box by four Boston pitchers, combined with timely smashes and hysterical fielding blunders, enabled the Brooklyns to crush the Braves at Ebbets Field yesterday to the tune of 15 to 3. Nine of the runs came in the third inning. Dahlen's men took a big brace after two consecutive setbacks and played the kind of ball that has kept them within halling distance of the top all season. Patrick Don Carlos Ragan wasn't com-the lead with two runs. Stallings's team tied the score in the third, but the Dodgers in their half rolled up nine runs and cinched the game. It took nearly twenty minutes to play this period, but the fans as Maranville fumbled Cutshaw's grounder and threw the ball over Myers's flead.

Stengel hammered a single to right, scoring Moran and putting Cutshaw on third. Wheat scratched a hit to McDonald, Cutshaw sprinting home and Stengel stopping at the middle station. Daubert bounced the ball in front of the plate and Rariden but McDonald not only muffed the but also threw it.

AUTES OF THE DIAMOND.

The Lincoin club of the Western League and South Pecking and

by Rattled Player

A PLAYER who gets rattled never makes a hit with George Stallings, the Boston Nationals' manager. The noisy coaching of Fog Horn Meyer during the fourth inning yesterday completely unnerved young McDonald, the Braves' third baseman, so that he muffed a thrown ball and then hurled the leather over the first baseman's head. The moment McDonald committed these blunders Stallings acted. He yanked him out of the game and sent the veteran Devlin to the third corner. Devlin the next moment accepted a difficult chance and Stallings clapped his hands.

Frank Chance, in sending a written pro-test of Tuesday's game at the Polo Grounds to Ban Johnson, president of the American League, points out some interesting things in connection with the decision of Chief Umpire Egan, who ordered Borton to bat over again after he had singled and Barry's belated throw had been interfered with by Field Umpire Dineen's clothing. "Section 4 of Rule 55 is clear," says the

New York manager. "The proper ruling should have kept Borton on first and held Hartzell at third. Egan had no authority to order the play over again, and if his ruling is sustained it opens up new possibilities. In the world's series, for instance, a quick witted infielder might pre-vent the deciding run by deliberately vent the deciding run by deliberately throwing the ball so that it would hit the

"Suppose Borton when he batted over again has driven the ball into the right field grand stand for a home run! Hart-zell would have scored ahead of him and the score would have been a tie at the end of the ninth inning. Suppose we had made the winning run in the tenth! It's dollars to dimes that Connie Mack would have protested the game on the ruling made by Egan. I believe President Johnson will sustain our protest and order the game played again."

LYNCH PROBES PUNCHING BEE.

Asks All Involved About Brennan-McGraw Incident: Returns Silent. PHILADELPHIA, July 2 .- President Lynch of the National League was at the ball grounds here early to-day and made bee and then left for New York without int mating what action he would take in the matter. He did not direct Manager Dooin not to pitch Brennan in either of the remaining games, but hinted that it would be good policy to keep him out if it was possible to do so. Lynch also said he did not believe that McGraw used all the vile language he is reported to have hurled at the Phillies on the day in ques
